spent last Sunday with rejatives at Chickassaw.

Well fortified with the last sacraments of the church, Grandmother Rosina Wohrman passed to eternity Sunday morning, October I, at the home of her son-in-law, Henry Gottemoller ,north-west of St. Rosa. She had been sick since last winter, yet the end came somewhat unexpected. She was born at Cassella, Aug. 12, 1839, her maiden name being, Platta. At that time our county was nearly all covered with immense forests. She grew to woman-hood at home then married Mr. Wohrman. They then removed on their farm south of Cassella, (the farm that Mr. J. C. Schwieterman now has rented). Her husband died many years ago. In 1902 she left the farm to live with Henry Gottemoeller, her son-in-law, northwest of St. Rosa. There she has lived the last days of her life. She was a very devout Catholic. Altho she resided two miles from our church she attended mass almost svery morning up to hast winter, when she took sick, All her children, except one, who is in the State Hospital at Toledo, preceded her to the grave. The burial, which took place Wednesday morning, October 4th, at St. Rosa church and cemetery was well attended. "May she rest in peace." In the matter of the estate of Joseph B. Newcomb ,deceased, executors filed inwill of Theresia Cunther filed. Appli-cation to admit some to probate filed. For cation to admit same to probate filed. For hearing Oct. 14.

In the matter of the guardianship of Rhoda Burris, governor filed potition to self-real estate. For hearing, November 9, Issued minister's license to E. C. Pires. In the mailter of the estate of John R. Williams executor filed final account of distribution.
